

Hail Insurance Council of Saskatchewan

Hail Adjuster Application

If you have any questions about this application contact the Hail Insurance Council of Saskatchewan or visit our web site.

Council's regular business hours are Monday to Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Please note:

This application applies to you if you are applying for an Adjuster's Licence.

This licence will entitle the Adjuster to adjust for any company but restricts the Adjuster from representing a licensed Adjusting Firm.

Incomplete Applications – any missed items as listed below will be returned without processing.

- Responses to any required information or question.
- Relevant attachments or supporting documents.
- Required signatures.
- Required fees.

Application Fees

The application fee for obtaining a licence is $70 (please note the licensing fee is subject to change).

Please refer to the last page of this application form to obtain the payment options available.

If you are using a corporation, partnership, or name other than your personal name, (on business cards, letterhead or any advertising) that corporation, partnership or business name must also be licensed with the Hail Insurance Council of Saskatchewan.

Submitting Applications

All licence applications must be submitted to Council for consideration at:

Security Clearance

Instructions

Criminal record checks must accompany all initial Saskatchewan applications for licensing. This applies to first time applicants, individuals who have not held a licence for more than one year or individuals who have to re-qualify for licensing.

- Have the local police or RCMP detachment conduct a criminal record check based on a name search. You must apply to the police service that serves the area in which you reside.
- If a possible record is indicated, you will be required to have this verified by a fingerprint check.
- The completed original Security Clearance Report must be attached to the application form. The report may not be dated in excess of six months.
- Any costs associated with the record check are the responsibility of the applicant.

Part D: Other requirements for maintaining a licence

Continuing education requirements

The Hail Adjuster Bylaw requires all licensees to attain a minimum of six credit hours of continuing education every two years. Continuing education must be directly related to knowledge relevant to adjusting hail insurance or other crop hazards.

Non-resident licensees are required to comply with this requirement. This can be accomplished by one of the following options:

1. If you have continuing education requirements in your resident province, you will be required to verify that you have successfully complied with this requirement. This may be accomplished by providing a Certificate of Authority/Non-resident Endorsement issued by your resident licensing body.
 2. If you do not have a continuing education requirement in your resident province, you will be required to comply with Saskatchewan's continuing education requirements as identified in the bylaws.

Part E: Non-resident Applicants
