Spring 2009 Newsletter

NOTICE OF TRANSITION IN ICS MANAGEMENT

The Insurance Councils of Saskatchewan (ICS) and the Insurance Brokers' Association of Saskatchewan (IBAS) have enjoyed an excellent business and working relationship since the Councils were established in 1985.

ICS and IBAS share a common boardroom, certain office systems, equipment and space, a receptionist, and an Executive Director. The business arrangement has provided financial and organizational benefits to both.

ICS and IBAS are experiencing an increased level of activity and have agreed to develop a separate management structure.

Executive Director Ernie Gaschler who successfully served in a joint management capacity since 1992 will continue to work with IBAS.

The ICS has initiated the search for a new chief officer and is pleased that Ernie will continue to assist the Councils during the search and transition process.

LICENCE FEE INCREASE

Licensees were previously advised of a $10 increase in licence fees for 2009 and 2010.

As a result of the decision to restructure management and to acquire additional office space, the ICS will increase the licence fee to $20 in 2010 instead of the $10 originally contemplated.

KNOW YOUR PRODUCT

In today's investment market place there are non-regulated investment products that make claims of high returns and tax advantages. At one time these investment products were only available to "sophisticated" investors; they are now available to any investor.

These investment products go by various names such as limited partnerships, individual interests, private placements etc. and are being sold as an alternative to traditional investments such as segregated or mutual funds or other life insurance products. Many of these alternative investments claim RRSP eligibility.

Insurance agents not registered to sell mutual funds or securities and sell these non-regulated investment products may face possible misconduct charges under Council Bylaws if it is shown that the investment product was unsuitable for the client.

The recommendation of any investment product should be made with a view of the entire client portfolio, i.e. the concept of asset allocation.

The sale of investment products demands a high level of competence, knowledge, care and skill, it is critical that as an insurance agent you have proficient product knowledge. Much like knowing your client you must also know your product.

If you can not explain the investment:

- objectives,
- strategy,
- leverage,
- risks, and
- deposit guarantees associated with regulated securities; and

If you have not determined:

- the client's risk tolerance,
- the suitability of the investment for your client,
- the reputation of the manufacturer of the investment product,
- the track record of manufacturer of the investment product,
- how the rate of return is to be provided, and
- have confirmation the investment is indeed RRSP eligible, you would be wise not to sell it.

There is much evidence in the news that show supposedly well informed investment professionals had no idea of the nature of the product they were offering their clients.

The courts and industry regulators have held those making investment recommendations to a high standard and the sanctions imposed for a regulatory violation or breach of fiduciary duty are becoming common.

It is important for licensees to be aware that if you are sued by a client to whom you sold an alternative investment product such as a limited partnership your errors and omissions insurance will not likely provide you with any coverage.

Glen Raymond Fisher

Glen Raymond Fisher (Fisher) of Regina SK representing The Standard Life Insurance Company and the Cooperators Life Insurance Company was found to have contravened;

1. Life Insurance Council Bylaw 8 s. (1), (a) when; Fisher provided two emails to his client's lawyer, both of which contained erroneous information. He represented the clients assets included four life insurance policies on his client's life with total death benefit of $1,025,000 and that cash values in the policies was minimal and was being used to pay premiums. Fisher was aware this was erroneous as at that time three of the four policies had lapsed and only $25,000 worth of insurance was in place.

A second communication to the lawyer was a beneficiary list sent that indicated there were four policies on the client's life when at the time three of them had lapsed. Also one policy was inaccurately portrayed as worth $50,000, when in fact it was worth $25,000. Fisher was aware this was erroneous.

The Discipline Committee determined Fisher's conduct of providing inaccurate information to a lawyer, who he knew was preparing a will for his client, was disgraceful and dishonourable and clearly harmed the standing of licensees in the insurance industry.

The Committee ordered that pursuant to Life Insurance Council Bylaw 10 s. 2:

- (a) Glen Raymond Fisher's licences be suspended for three (3) months (pursuant to Bylaw 10 s. 2(1)(b));
- (b) Glen Raymond Fisher pay to the Life Insurance Council prior to reinstatement a fine in the amount of $2,500.00 (pursuant to Bylaw 10 s. 2(1)(c));
- (c) Glen Raymond Fisher pay to the Life Insurance Council prior to reinstatement costs in the amount of $2,920.00 representing the costs of the investigation and Disciplinary Hearing (pursuant to Bylaw 10 s. 2(1)(d));
- (d) Glen Raymond Fisher successfully complete at his own expense and prior to reinstatement an "Ethics" course approved by the Life Insurance Council (pursuant to Bylaw 10 s. 2(1)(g)(iii)); and
- (e) Glen Raymond Fisher's licences will be suspended for three (3) months and will remain suspended until full compliance with paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) above.

2. Life Insurance Council Bylaw 8 s. (2), (c) when; Fisher provided false and misleading information on two occasions in the course of servicing his insurance business with his client. The information was the communications to the client's lawyer. Fisher's client had requested that he provide details of her insurance policies to her lawyer.

The Disciplinary Hearing Committee determined that Fisher provided false and/or misleading communications in the course of servicing Insured's insurance business.

The Committee orders that pursuant to Life Insurance Council Bylaw 10, s. 2:

- (a) Glen Raymond Fisher's licences be suspended for three (3) months (pursuant to Bylaw 10 s. 2(1)(b));
- (b) Glen Raymond Fisher pay to the Life Insurance Council prior to reinstatement a fine in the amount of $2,500.00 (pursuant to Bylaw 10 s. 2(1)(c));
- (c) Glen Raymond Fisher pay to the Life Insurance Council prior to reinstatement costs in the amount of $2,920.00 representing the costs of the investigation and Disciplinary Hearing (pursuant to Bylaw 10 s. 2(1)(d));

- (d) Glen Raymond Fisher successfully complete at his own expense and prior to reinstatement an "Ethics" course approved by the Life Insurance Council (pursuant to Bylaw 10 s. 2(1)(g)(iii)); and
- (e) Glen Raymond Fisher's licences will be suspended for three (3) months and will remain suspended until full compliance with paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) above.

The suspensions imposed in charge 1 and 2 are to run concurrently and successful completion of one Ethics course is sufficient to satisfy both decisions.

The fines totaled $5,000 and costs totaled $5,840.
